TED HENRY

Well-known television journalist, Ted Henry, is our special guest speaker for the First Sunday Meeting in August. Ted served as a television journalist for more than 40 years, and retired in 2009 from WEWS-TV, the ABC network affiliate in Cleveland, Ohio. His many duties included presenting a weekly news report on spirituality called, "Heart and Soul". These video accounts were intended to reach those most interested in learning about the purpose of their being and their truest identity. Eventually, these spiritual explorations led to Ted's work with Souljourns.

As a journalist with a long standing interest in spirituality, Ted and his wife, Jody Cleary have traveled extensively for the past 19 years conducting video interviews with spiritually oriented people. Many of these interviews are with followers of Sathya Sai Baba, and the stories reported nearly always embody important eastern spiritual concepts including advaita, oneness, or non-duality. Those interviewed include Muslims, Christians, Jews, Hindus, Buddhists as well as those who are not followers of any religion. Thus far they have recorded more than 400 interviews, and these videos are made available to all through their Souljourns website, www.souljourns.net, and also on YouTube and Vimeo.

Be sure to mark your calendars and join us in August!
