SHEELA & RAM NAYAK

Mrs. Sheela Nayak was about 10 years old when she first saw Swami, and He has guided her family throughout their lives for the past 60 years. Ramachandra Nayak was blessed and guided by Swami to pursue graduate school in the USA, where he got a PhD in Pharmacokinetics from UCSE. Swami arranged his marriage to Sheela, and they moved to Pennsylvania where they were involved in Sai activities for many decades.

Swami gave them permission to host a center, and they did so at their home in for nearly 30 years. Both Ram and Sheela served in various positions, and in the 1970's, Ram was chosen by Swami to serve as a regional officer.

Nowadays, Sheela and Ram live in California, much closer to their grandchildren. They attend the North County San Diego Center, where Sheela is currently the SSE Coordinator.

Join us in August to hear about their lifetime of experience with Sathya Sai Baba, and the lessons learned, and about lives filled with devotion, love and surrender.
