Vedam and Bhajans Followed by an Interview with:

Leslie Farkas

"Discussing the Path of Faith, Devotion and Surrender"

Leslie Farkas first visited Sathya Sai Baba for the first time when he was 21 in 1989. His mother Veronica was already an ardent devotee, but Leslie was very skeptical and not sure what to think. Swami would soon win him over with his Love.

It was on Leslie's third trip in 1992, when out of deep desperation he finally surrendered and his whole life was transformed by the miracle of Swami's Divine Love. This visit that was to last 6 months, turned into a five year spiritual odyssey of living and serving in the physical presence of the Lord. In Leslie's first interview in 1992, Swami asked Veronica and Leslie to run the Western Canteen. They had no prior training or experience, but with Swami's grace, much hard work and the help of many devotees they both managed, cooked and baked feeding many hundreds and sometime thousands of devotees per meal.

When Swami would move to Bangalore, they would run the Canteen there. Their vacation time-off from the Canteen was when they would follow Swami to Kodaikanal, Ooty and other locations in India. Through his time in India, Leslie was blessed with numerous interviews, Swami's close personal attention and deep, difficult and liberating spiritual lessons. In the last year of his stay, Swami asked Leslie to speak to visiting devotees as a Public Relations Officer, sharing Swami's messages, teachings and his own experiences.

After returning from India in 1997, Leslie has been working as a Design Engineer in the medical, electric transportation, aerospace and scientific fields. He lives in Ventura, California where he continues the journey back to his Source.
